By CLINTON SCOLLARD. Author of "A Man at Arms," "The Son

Copyright, 1901, by J. B. Lippincott Co.

CHAPTER XIII .- CONTINUED. After his plunge out of the bushes Rossiter hurried up the field, crossed into the upper orchard, and made his way to the sleeping quarters of the men. What he had just seen and heard had suddenly dissolved the resolution and purpose that had been daily taking firmer and more definite shape since he left the freight-train that night at Illica. Life never would, never could, hold aught for him. What he had recently experienced proved this but too plainly. He was a fool to think that he could ever be anything but a vagabond. He would take to the road again. Hastily he put his few belongings together and strode to the door. There he paused. Should he leave without a word to any one? The love in his heart flooded over him like a great wave as his mind reverted to Miss Densmore. No. he would somehow contrive to send a goodby to her. It was a crowning piece of folly, perhaps, doubtless, for it would mean nothing to her, but he would indulge in it nevertheless. It would he his final tribute on the now shattered alter of hope-the shrine which he had so unwittingly reared.

He remembered to have seen Jos Beeraft that morning slip a small pencil into a vest hanging upon a chair near his cot. The garment was still there. He took out his brother's letter, tore off at the crease a little strip upon which there was no writing, and in the dim light traced his words of adieu. He then replaced the pencil, thrust the folded message into his pocket, and rending in scraps the remainder of the letter, scattered the fragments upon the grass as he stepped from the door.

There's an end of that!" he said In the hop-kiln, by dull lantern light, some of the pickers were having a last impromptu merry-making to the wheezy music of a mouth-organ played by one of their number. Among the dancers was Joe Beeraft. It had been Rossiter's intention to bid him good-by, but he saw that he could not do so without encountering many others, so with a consciousness of real regret he turned away. As he came to the end of the barn he descried Jack Parmelee's familiar figure moving towards the house. Here was the very man for his pur-pose. He halled him.

"Mr. Parmelee!" he called.

The farm manager halted. "Oh, it's you!" he said, as Rossiter drew near. "What's up?" He had remarked the pole-puller's bundle.

"I'm off," said Rossiter. "I've changed my mind about waiting till morning. If I hurry I think I can catch the Hintonville train, but I startin' home?" he ventured. can't wait to say good-by to every- "Yes," returned Rossiter. Won't you make my adieus to Mr. and Mrs. Merton and Miss Merton and to the Becrafts .- I'm very sorry not to see them all,—and would you be king ough to give this to Miss Densmore?"

He held out the slip of paper with its penciled words. Parmelee took

"Why, certainly, to be sure," he id. "But you'd better wait. In-

"It's very kind of you. Mr. Merton spoke about it, but I must go," answered Rossiter, holding out his "Well, you'll come next year?" said Parmelee, giving him a hearty grip. "I'll keep a place for you, if

"I can't promise," Rossiter replied. "Thanks just the same."

Parmelee watched Rossiter stride out of the gate and take the Hinton-ville road. "There's a chap I can't make out,"

he muttered as he walked towards the house.

Rossiter recalled that half way to to a crisp." Hintonville there was a highway branching towards the west. When he reached this he took it without trying to catch the train, but had for some distance." spoken of doing so as a plausible exwhat special avail was it? In the big one it was, by the look o' it." life to which he was returning he Rossiter had no comment to make. more's eyes as she had bent above Yes, it must have been that, and yet the look haunted him, and continued to do so. By and by he found himself nearing the valley of the Oskenonto. As he halted an instant before seeking the lower level, a fierce pulsating flame leaped up into the hollow of the night, and he knew that he was not far from the blast furnace of Harkana. Descending, he chose a road that led him past the flaring stacks, and paused to watch the flery waves of molten iron pour into the moulds of sand. He crossed the furpace slag-heaps, hideous even in the starlight, and beyond the Oskenonto and the abandoned Susquenango ca-of fortune began to clear for him pal found a highway ascending into the hills. Whither it wound he had no nction, and naught did he care. The hills appealed to him. He would night, illumining briefly and weirdly the heaven and the earth. Occasion-ally a cloud would reflect the glow after the flame had died, a mock sunrise or sunset. Towards midnight, when he had won high among the uplands, the moon rose, a crumbling segment of pale gold.

tracted attention. From

of the best magazines.

easy transition, and he suddenly found himself a contributor to one

Rossiter was again the neatly dressed man of yore, and to the ease of manner which had always been his was added a subtle trace of inde-confessed to himself that the mem-lection of the hop-field days, more the reunion with his college classrestful delight-delight within whose of but a single flaw. Three of the four days for which he had been granted leave of absence had slipped

by. Should he on the morrow drive over to the Merton farm and have a chat with the good people-Jack Parmelee and Mr. and Mrs. Merton and their daughter? Every night since his arrival in Hintonville he had put to himself this question, but the visit was yet to be made. Passionately as he longed for some news of Miss Densmore, he dreaded to hear of what he reflected must, in all probability, have long since taken

For nearly an hour carriages had been passing, conveying students and to the gymnasium, where the senior ball was that night to be held. Roscalls in town, and within the frateruity house the under-classmen were entertaining several prospective freshmen. Rossiter was hence left quite lonely, his thoughts being very agree campus. For a while he listened to them dreamily, then it occurred to him that it might be interesting to see what an up-to-date college ball was like, so he rose and sauntered

As he emerged from the maple shadow, he found the combination of music and moonlight so beguiling from beam to beam above the whirling dancers, and at intervals flags was a general flutter of gauzy fabrics

[To Be Continued.]

Choosing a Minister.

been rather unfortunate in its ministers, two of them having gone off in decline within a twelvemonth of their appointment, and now, after hearing a number of candidates for the vacancy, the members were looking for-

The parish kirk of Driechton had dip in the music.

Scottish American.

get's sagacious reply.

hurry."-London Mail.

o't, vote wi' me."

are you gaun to vote for?"

"An' hoo are you gaun to vote?"

no' bother us wi' deein' again in a towards the gymnasium.

place-her marriage.

mates.

Rossiter was now weary, and presently a straw-stack in a field adjoining the highway suggested a desirable place of rest. He scaled the fence and approached the stack, becoming consious, as he did so, of the sound of heavy breathing. Some one, it was evident, had already availed himself of a free night's lodging. Rossiter hesitated an instant and then went forward. Doubtless there would be plenty of accommodation for two. On the eastern side of the stack, revealed distinctly by the moonlight, was the huddled body of man. There could be no harm, Rossiter thought, in having a closer glance at his fellow-lodger. He advanced cautiously a few paces and peered down, to start back in amazement and dismay, for he had gazed upon the repulsive face of "Whis-

Swiftly and silently he retraced his steps to the road, his mind swept by a powerful reaction. Voluntarily he had returned to the level of this detestable creature, had allowed the first disappointment to overthrow every firm resolve of the past weeks, and had gone miserably down once more into the very slough of degeneracy. Out of the realization of his instability, the overwhelming sense of his bitter shame, by some strange and sudden revulsion his spirit rose triumphant. He bowed his head. "With God's help," he said, "it is the last time!" He strode downward towards the valley, and a mile from the strawstack found a sleeping place in a shed. Slumber soon brought its boon of forgetfulness, but before it did so he summoned from the depths of his siter's special friends were making recollection the lovely contour of

Miss Densmore's face. "After all," he thought, musing upon the sweetness of what might have been, "it is a blessing to have to himself, yet he was in no wise known her!"

When he roused the following able company. Presently strains of music floated down to him across the morning the sun had scattered the banked mists above the hills beyond the Merton farm, and as he stood in the door-way of his rude shelter, blinking in the glistening light, a farmer approached driving marketward with a heaped wagon-load of potatoes. The two men exchanged glances and nods.

"Bound for Hintonville?" inquired "Yep. That's where I'm goin'," was the reply. "Perhaps you wouldn't mind giving me a lift, then?"

"Mind? Certainly not! Jump right up."

He checked his horses until Rossiter had mounted to the seat beside him. He was of a hearty, bigsouled type; had a sandy beard, keen yet kindly blue eyes, and a voice that expanded into a muffled roar at the close of every sentence. His laugh, too, was explosive.

"Been hop-pickin', I s'pose, an' now

"Like it?" "Yes, very much."

"Hain't heard, hev ye, what happened to a hop-picker, er a tramp. las' night up to Bob Pankhurst's on the hill?"

"No: what was it?" "Well, ye see Bob's got-er had, that he was in no hurry to venture ruther-a straw-stack jest across the farther, so he seated himself upon road from his house that'd ketch anid. "But you'd better wait. Inthe eye o' anybody strollin' by an' joined the gymnasium, directly be deed, I wish you'd stay right on. We in want o' a place to stow 'emselves' neath the symmetrical finger of the need just such a man as you. Mr. till daylight free o' charge. They's spire. Merton'd give you good wages, you plenty o' sech about these days'this final remark with a sly glance at his companion. The mention of the straw-stack had stimulated Rossiter's interest to such a degree that he did not heed the attempted pleasantry.

"Yes! yes!" he cried. "What happened! "Well," said the farmer, "when Bob got up this mornin' he was minus a straw-stack. The blamed thing floor. As he wheeled about to surburnt in the night, and not a dern soul about the place seen it. When they discovered it, and come to go near to look at it, there was a man's boots stickin' out o' the black, smokin' mass. His upper part was done

"If I recall rightly," said Rossiter, conscious of a sudden awe in his tone which the other did not seem to nohesitation. He had no intention of tice, "there is but one straw-stack that ever and anon surged above a

"Yep," said the farmer, "that's cuse for his hasty departure. Plans right! Eob's is the only one for at he had none, needed none. He was least three miles, leastwise the only to drift again, a waif, a vagrant, a one near the road. The feller, whocommon vagabond. Now nothing ever he was, must 'ave been smokin' mattered. Money he had, more than an' fallen asleep. He's had his las' he had possessed that year, but of smoke, that's dead sure, an' a mighty could manage quite as easily with. The horror of the scene kindled in out it. He trudged on steadily, his his imagination by the farmer's mind a babel of emotions. One by words silenced him. And yet he could one he reviewed the scenes of his but consider the dreadful doom which hop-yard life, in which Miss Dens- had overtaken "Whiskers" as retribumore always appeared as the central tive. There was no one, he thought, figure, but chiefly he dwelt upon his who would question the justice of return to consciousness after the en- this tragic interposition of fate, but counter in the dip of the Blue Creek the shocking end of Hart Dawson was Road. It must have been pity not still heavy on his mind when, an hour later, he stepped upon the platform of the Hintonville station.

> CHAPTER XIV. COMMENCEMENT AT MONROE COL-

LEGE.

It was the evening of commence ment day at Monroe college. Upon the wide veranda of one of the fraternity houses sat Philip Rossiter smoking a cigar and gazing through an opening in the trees at the moonlight-flooded valley. A very different man he was in thought and appearance from the individual who had strolled about the college campus that Sabbath morning more than a year and a half previous. The sky there had been no recurrence of Youth is ambitious, but the average college professor, though not unduly cynical, has seen too much of the irony of life to keep from satirlzing on the fact occasionally. A professor in a well-known law school the other day was warning his class in contracts against too much "specialization." "I once had a student," he said. " who told me just after he was graduated that he intended to devote cloud. Early in his career upon the his attention almost exclusively to The hills appealed to him. He would go up among them as high as might be, and so he struck into this road. For a time he ascended gradually, then it became stony and steep. Be hind him, from time to time, the stacks of the furnace shot streamers of red and blue and crange into the cess, he tried sketch writing the lime to time to time; the editor-in-chief. Inspired by his success, he tried sketch writing the lime to time the cess, he tried sketch writing the lime to time the editor-in-chief. Inspired by his success, he tried sketch writing the lime to time the editor-in-chief. Inspired by his success, he tried sketch writing the lime to time the editor-in-chief. Inspired by his success, he tried sketch writing the lime to time the editor-in-chief. WILLING TO REPEAT.

Young Hunter Captures Somethin police court episodes, quickly at-More Than Game on One of His Expeditions. sketches to fiction was a natural and

On the Kronprinz Wilhelm, one moonlight May night, a young man and a girl were discovered making love. The news of this discovery spread among the passengers, and many a joke was cracked, says the Kansas City Journal. But Senator N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, said in the smoking-room:

"There is nothing to laugh at here. Innocent love-making is natural in the young. This fact was well brought out by an adventure that happened to a friend of mine, years ago, in the mountains of West Virginia.

"The young man was hunting. He came to a lonely cabin, and, being thirsty, he knocked at the door for a drink. The drink was handed to him by a girl so charming that, with a smile, he said:

"Would you be angry if I should offer you a dollar for a kiss?"

"No, sir, the girl answered, with a little blush.

"So my friend took the kiss, and then pendence of assurance that was wholly new to him. He bore in his heart but one burden, his love for Sylvia Densmore; and yet he often ory of her wiasome personality carried with it more of sweetness than of sadness. Her image and the recolthan the importuning of friends, had drawn him back to Hintonville and had begun work upon the Evening Star, and it proved to him a time of translucent amber he was conscious

America's Summer Resorts.

Unintentional.

young ladies and their chaperones Don't Get Footsore! Get Foot-Ease.

To Care a Cold in One Day.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. 250.

Piso's Cure cannot be too kighly spoken of as a cough cure.—J. W. O'Brien, 322 Third Ave., N., Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 6, 1900.

The ignorance that is bliss is apt to be succeeded by knowledge that isn't.—

The Four Track News for July, best yet. Sold by newsdealers. Five cents a copy. Never trust the man who will not trust another.—Ram's Horn.

Telling your troubles only enlarges them. Chicago Daily News.

1	The state of the s	-Chicago Daily News.	THE AIRT HEATHIRIT
		THE GENERAL MARKETS.  Kansas City, July 9. CATTLE-Reef steers	Here is a combined treatment that does what ONE medicine CAN NOT DO. The complete obliteration of that dread Consumption (Tuberculosis) is now possible through the use of The Dr. Slocum's Combination System of Medication, which will
		Texas and Indian steers 2 80 @ 3 55 HOGS 525 @ 5 60 SHEEP 250 @ 3 75 WHEAT—No. 2 hard 71½@ 73 No. 2 red 71 @ 73 CORN—No. 2 mized 86 48½ OATS—No. 2 mixed 34½@ 35½	Positively Cure this Dread Disease. It is the Most Modern and the very Greatest Method of Alimentation Ever Presented to Sufferers from this disease. It prevents and Cures Consumption of the Throat, Lungs, Stomach, Liver, Spleen and Kidneys.
	HE SEATED HIMSELF ON THE STEPS	OATS—No. 2 mixed	All Catarrhal Conditions of these Organs disappear Promptly and Permanently under the Healing Influence of These Wonderful Medicines.  Dr. Slocum's method of treatment consists of Four Specific Remedies as illustrated and bove.
Control of	OF THE CHAPEL. that he was in no hurry to venture farther, so he seated himself upon	BUTTER-Fancy to extra. 16 @ 19 EGGS	MANE AND MONEY TIL
STATE OF THE STATE OF	the steps of the chapel, which ad- joined the gymnasium, directly be- neath the symmetrical finger of the spire.	ST. LOUIS.  CATTLE—Beef steers 3 80 @ 5 60  Texas steers 3 50 @ 4 50  HOGS—Packers 5 60 @ 5 80	We send FREE and postpaid a 20 Rectimit also 100 page illus. treat by our mild method, nece paid a 4 DRS. THORNTON
100	To the north he could mark the spasmodic twinkling of the electric towers of Illica, and there, in the vague purple distance to the south-	HOUS-PRESETS   3 50 69 4 15	RUPTURE CUREDIN by a scientific process home sound and well. our write aud inclose 20 specialist, 205 Altman
	east, lay the Merton farm.  His face was set in this direction when an unusually lively air from the orchestra stirred him from his	BUTTER—Creamery 15 @ 21 CORN MEAL 9 50 @ 9 87½ BACON 9 50 @ 9 87½ CHICAGO.	SAWYER'S reverie. With something like a sigh he turned towards the gymnastum, and was soon elimbing the third floor. As he wheeled shout to sup-	CATTLE-Steers 3 29 67 5 40 HOGS-Mixed and butchers 5 56 67 5 75 SHEEP-Western 2 50 67 3 75 FLOUR-Winter patents 3 30 67 3 79	EXCELSION BRAND POMME!

FLOUR—Winter patents
WHEAT—No. 2 red. 50½
CORN—No. 2 51¾6 52
OATS—No. 2 38 6 39
RYE—July 51½
LARD—July 7 87½6 7 97½
PORK—July 15 10 615 13 vey the room, on reaching the top stair, a gay spectacle met his eye. Great streamers of old gold and blue -the college colors-were festooned NEW YORK. ATTLE-Steers ..... 4 20 @ 5 30 and trophies captured at intercollegiate meets were suspended. There and a blending of talk and laughter of effort in which he had formerly won praise. His vivid pictures of the slums, of tramp life, of unusual little blush.

"So my friend took the kiss, and then he gave the maiden the dollar. She balanced it in her hand a moment. She knitted her pretty brows in perplexity.

"What, she asked, shall I do with all this money?"

"Why, anything you please, my dear, said my friend.

"Then, she murmured, I think I'll give it buck to your hand. It was his first holiday since he

"Then,' she murmured, 'I think I'll give it back to you, and take another kiss."

America's Summer Resorts.

When it begins to get hot and dry one's thoughts naturally turn toward the lakes and rivers and the seashere of New York and New England, and we begin to wonder how much it would require of time and money to make the trip. A lot of these questions are answered and a lot of information given free in "Fou-Track Series" No. 3, "America's Summer Resorts." Sent on receipt of a two-cent stamp, by George H. Daniels, General Passenger Agent, New York Central & Hudson River Railroad, Grand Central Station, New York,

Toast Master (to chairman of public dinner)—Would you like to propose your toast now, my lord, or should we let 'em enjoy themselves a bit longer?—Punch.

A wonderful powder that cures tired, hot, aching feet and makes new or tight shoes easy. Ask to-day for Allen's Foot-Ease, Accept no substitute. Trial package FREE. Address A. S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

Mrs. Newrocks—"Why, those are gen-uine antiques." Mr. Newrocks—"Are they? They look to me like second-hand stuff." Kansas City World.

"If time was money," said Uncle Eben, "some folks dat stops busy men to tell funny stories ought to be arrested for embezzlement."—Washington Star.

THE GENERAL MARKETS.
Kansas City, July 9.
CATTLE-Beef steers$3 90 @ 5 10
Native heifers 3 25 % 4 25
Texas and Indian steers 2 80 @ 3 55
HOGS 5 25 @ 5 60
SHEEP 2.50 67.3.73
WHEAT-No. 2 hard 71½0 73 No. 2 red 71 @ 73
No. 2 red 71 @ 73
CORN-No. 2 mixed 48 @ 4814
CORN-No. 2 mized
RYE 50
FLOUR-Hard winter pat 3 20 @ 3 50
Soft winter patents 3 20 @ 3 30
HAY-Timothy 11 25 6:11 75
Prairie 10 00 6:11 00
BRAN
BUTTER-Fancy to extra 16 @ 19
EGGS
POTATOES-New 65 66 80
ST. LOUIS.
CATTLE-Beef steers 3 80 6 5 60
Texas steers 3 00 @ 4 50
HOGS-Packers 5 60 @ 5 80
SHEEP-Natives 3 50 6 4 15
FLOUR-Red winter pat 3 85 @ 4 00
WHEAT-No. 2 red 80 @ 81
CORN-No. 2 50 @ 501/2
OATS-No. 2
RYE 51

"He used to kiss me every time we assed through a tunnel before our maringe," said the little woman, with sad riage," said the little woman, with sac reflections.
"And does he do so now?" asked the bosom friend.
"No, he takes a drink." - Chicago Daily

Beauty is not a gift, it is a loan that is taken back from its possessor, in spite of all protestations and struggles, gradually but surely.—Town Topics.

Some fellows marry poor girls to settle down, and others marry rich ones to set-tle up.—Philadelphia Record.

"Shall I administer gas before extracting your tooth?" asked the dentist.
"Well," answered the fair patient from a back township, "if it doesn't cost any more, I'd rather you'd give me electric light."—Chicago Daily News.

"Well, I never!" "What's the matter, my dear?" "Why, cook says that those people who live in that insignificant little house opposite came over here while we were away, and were photographed siting on our veranda."—The House Beautiful.

Wise benevolence is always good busi-ness.—Ram's Horn.

Let this Coupon be your Messenger of Deliverance from Kidney, Bladder, and Urinary Troubles. For Torturing, Disfiguring ance from Nic.

It's the people who doubt and become cured while they doubt who praise Doan's Pills the highest.

Aching backs are eased. Hip, back, and loin pains overcome. Swelling of the limbs and dropsy signs vanish.

They correct urine with brick dust sediment, high colored, pain in passing, dribbling, frequency, bed wetting. Doan's Kidney Pills remove calculi and gravel. Relieve heart palpitation, sleeplessness, headache, bervousness, dizziness.

Taylorsville, Miss.—"I tried everything for a weak back and got no relief until I used Doan's Pills."

J. N. Lewis. Kidney Pills, STATE. For free trial box, mail this coupon to Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. If above space is insufficient, write address on sepa-rate slip.

SYCHIN

Restorative

Digestive

Tonic

INVIGORATING

The Only Treatment That Cures CONSUMPTION

NO MONEY TILL CURED. 25 YEARS ESTABLISHED. We send FREE and postpaid a 200 page treatise on Piles, Fistula and Diseases of the Rectam; also (00 page liks, treatise on Diseases of Women. Of the thousands cured by our mild method, once paid a cent (illicated—we farnish their names on application, DRS. THORNTON & MINOR, 1031 Oak St., Kanuas City, Mo.

disappear Promptly and Permanently under the Healing Influence of These Wonderful Medicines.

Dr. Slocum's method of treatment consists of Four Specific Remedies as illustrated above.

"I have prescribed the Complete Treatment called by my name and sold by all druggists in hundreds of thousands of very serious cases, with unexampled success, and most satisfactory results."—DR. SLOCUM.

FREE MEDICINE TO ALL.

DOCTOR'S SPECIAL NOTICE.

If you suffer from Epilepsy, Fits, Failing Sichness, St. Vitus's Dance, or Vertigo, have children, relatives, friends or neighbors that do so, or know people that are afflicted, my New Treatment will immediately relieve and PERMANENTLY CURB them, and all you are asked to do is to send for my FREB TREATMENT and try it. It has CURED thousands where everything else failed. Will be sent in plain package absolutely free, express prepaid. My Illustrated Book, "Epilepsy Explained," FREE by mail. Please give name, AGE and full address. All correspondence professionally confidential.

professionally confidential.

W. H. MAY, M. D.,

94 Pine Street, New York City.

that a perfectly healthy baby never cries. When the little one does cry

Oltsfoote Oltsfootean

Don't Cough

Save Yourse

PREVENTS PNEUMONIA

PRICE STO

Parte 50 Cem

From Wreck

The reason you can get this trial free is because they cure Kidney Ills and will prove it to you. WEST BRANCH, MICH.

Doan's Kidney Fills hit the case, which was an unusual desire to urinate—had to get up five or six times of a night. I think diabetes was well under way, the feet and ankles swelled. There was an intense pain in the back, the heat of which would feel like putting one's hand up to a lamp chimney. I have used the free trial and two full boxes of Doan's Pills with the satisfaction of feeling that I am cured. They are the remedy par excellence.

compounded, in proof of which a single anointing preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases, by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humours, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when all other remedies fail. It is especially so in the treatment of infants and chilling the state of the s dren, cleansing, soothing and healing the most distressing of infantile huthe most distressing of infantic humours, and preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scaip and hair.
Cutcura Ointment possesses, at the same time, the charm of satisfying the simple wants of the toilet, in caring for the skin scale, here hand carried for the skin, scalp, hair, hands and feet, from infancy to age, far more effect-ually, agreeably and economically than the most expensive of tollet emollients. Its "Instant relief for skin-tortured babies," or "Sanative, antiseptic cleansing," or "One-night treatment of the hands or feet," or "Single treatment of the hair," or "Use after athletics," cycling, golf, tennis, riding, sparring, or any sport, each in connection with THE FOOD THAT DOES GOOD Cod Liver Oil or any sport, each in connection with the use of Cuticura Soap, is sufficient Emulsion evidence of this. Par Excellance

FREE TO WOMEN

CUTICURA

OINTMENT

Purest of Emollients and Greatest of Skin Cures.

The Most Wonderful Curative

of All Time

Skin Humours

And Purest and Sweetest of Toilet Emollients.

Cuticura Ointment is beyond question the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humours of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, ever

To prove the healing and cleansing power of Paxtine Tollet Antiscptic we will mail a large trial package with book of instructions absolutely free. This is not a tiny sample, but a large package, enough to convince anyone of its value. Women all over the country are praising Paxtine for what it has done in local treatment of fermale illie, curing all inflammation and discharges, wonderful as a cleansing vaginal douche, for scretchroat, nasal catarrh, as a mouth wash, and to remove tartar and whiten the teeth. Send to-day; a postal card will do.

Sold by druggists or sent postpaid by us, 50 cents, large box. Satisfaction guaranteed, THE R. PAXTON CO., 201 Coumbus Av., Boston, Mass.

To Prove to All Our Readers the Wonderful Properties of this Great System of Medicinal Treatment a Full, Free Course, consisting of the Four Free Large Packages, illustrated above, will be gladly sent to every reader on request. Simply send your Name, Post Office and Express Address to DR. T. A. SLOCUM, Laboratories, 98 Pine St., New York, and the Complete Free Treatment will at Once be sent you. WESTERN CANADA

WREN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS please state that you saw the Advertise ment in this paper.

Mothers, do you know

Slickers

Syrup Pepsin

is pleasant to take, augments and supplies the natural digestive ferment, acting as a gentle laxative by the power to assimilate food, makes and keeps babies in health and good humor. A trial will convince you.

Mrs. Allie Jackson, of Parmer City, III., writes: My seven-months-old baby was troubled a great deal with his stomach and howels. Lhad tried numerous remedies with no good results, until the baby lost much flesh and was in very poor health. A friend recom-mended Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. I procured a So bottle at the drug store and gave the contents to the baby according to directions, after which there was a decided improvement in his condition. Have been giving him Syrup Pepsin for about a month, with very satisfactory results, his stomach and bowels being in good, healthy condition and his former weight regained.

Your druggist sells it. If not, send us his name and we will send sample bottle FREE.

50c and $1 bottles.

PEPSIN SYRUP COMPANY, Monticello, III., U. S. A.

